Slaughter of Innocents.

Three Babies Killed in Nashville, Tenn.

Special to the Star.
NASHVILLE, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Lay was holding the infant daughter of J. M. Meyers in her arms at the Turner House, this morning, when an unknown person threw a snow-ball, striking the child on the head, from the effect of which it died.
Two dead new-born infants were found in this city this morning, one in a yard on High street, and the other in a hole made for a telegraph pole in the street. The first was a mulatto child. The verdict of the Coroner's Jury was death from exposure. The second was unrecognizable, and the verdict of the jury was death at the hands of an unknown person.

TO-DAY IN CONGRESS.

HOUSE.
National Associated Press to the Star.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The States were called for bills and resolutions for reference. Most of the bills were of a private character, and principally for pensions. Among the public bills introduced were the following:
By Mr. Rice.—To pay H. K. Browne for an equestrian statue of Winfield Scott, erected in Washington.
By Mr. Hutchins, of New York.—To fix the term of office of the Supervisors of Election at two years, and to require their appointment by the President of the United States; also, a bill to prohibit the arrest of election officers on the day of election.
By Mr. Keifer, of Ohio.—Authorizing the appointment of a committee to investigate the causes of disease among domestic animals.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

GENERAL BOYNTON AND HIS CONTROVERSIES.
Special to the Star.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Sherman-Boynton controversy is likely to bring other parties to the front. It is understood that General Babcock, whose letters to General Boynton were published by the latter in the Cincinnati Gazette on the 9th of January last, claims that said letters were confidential communications, and that he had written assurances from General Boynton that they should be so considered. Exactly what course General Babcock will take in the matter has not yet transpired.

SENSATIONAL DISPATCHES.
Sensational dispatches were sent out last night, stating that Secretary Evarts is about to retire from the cabinet because he is not in accord with the President on the Isthmus question. The President takes more advanced ground in favor of American control of the Isthmus than does Secretary Evarts. So say the gossips.

REORGANIZING THE SUPREME COURT.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—The bill introduced by Manning, of Mississippi, to reorganize the Supreme Court of the United States, is regarded as one of the most important offered at this session. The general impression is that the bill will be adopted.

ANOTHER PLANET.
The Smithsonian Institute has received from Prof. Foerster, of Boston, an announcement of the discovery, by M. Polla at Pola, on the 6th of February, 1880, of a planetoid of the seventh magnitude in ten hours twenty-three minutes of right ascension, and eight degrees thirty-one minutes in declination with a daily motion of six minutes north.

DEATH OF COLONEL GEO. SYKES.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The War Office this morning received notice of the death at Brownsville, Texas, yesterday morning of Colonel Geo. Sykes, of the Twentieth Infantry.

RENO WANTS TO RESIGN.
The proceedings of the Reno Court-martial case have not yet been promulgated. Some individual members of the Court made a recommendation to mercy, which was partly concurred in by General Sherman and Terry, but the President thought the offense one that should not be passed over, so he approved the findings of the Court. Reno, on learning this fact, telegraphed for permission to resign, in order to avoid dismissal. This request is now being considered by the President, and until it is disposed of the proceedings in the Court-martial case will not be given out.

Dunne, head salesman in the genteel furnishing house of Wilson Bros., of this city and Cincinnati, was yesterday arrested and locked up upon a charge of robbing his employers. A NEPHEW'S AWFUL CRIME.

National Associated Press to the Star.
MARCHESIER, N. H., Feb. 9.—In the neighboring town of Londonderry, eleven miles from this city, on the old Manmoth Road, a most horrible crime has been enacted. Frank Dillingham, aged twenty years, outraged and probably murdered his aunt, Sarah Dillingham, and then attempted his own life by shooting, but failing went to a neighboring store and gave himself up. The murderer comes from Lowell, Mass. On Saturday morning Mr. Dillingham left home to transact some business in Manchester, and was absent all day, leaving his nephew and his wife at home alone, when the crime was committed. Immediately upon the young man giving himself up and making known what devil-ish work he had been engaged in, he was secured, and several men entered the house, finding Mrs. Dillingham stretched on the floor in a front room, her head resting in a pool of blood, while her clothing was in such a condition as to lead to the conclusion that she had been outraged. A rope was drawn tightly about her neck, so that when it was removed it left a large belt of discoloration. Life still retained its hold feebly, however, but it is thought she can not live long.

The outraged shot himself near the left temple, but his recovery is almost certain. He has been given over to the custody of the Sheriff, who has taken him to some unknown place for fear that the terribly incensed people would lynch him. His victim is thirty-three years old and has been married eight years.

KILLED BOTH HIS MEN.

STERLING, ILL., Feb. 9.—At the residence of David Lear a young man named John Barker killed Lear and a man named Hardy Saturday. Barker was drunk and fired two shots at random, each shot killing a man. The shooting is said to have been accidental. In each case the ball penetrated the brain and caused death. No quarrel or ill feeling is reported nor anything to justify the killing. Lear was the uncle of Barker, and leaves a wife and two children. Hardy was unmarried.

SHE LECTURED TO THE HEATHEN.

CRISTON, IOWA, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Saline Chase, the alleged child torturer, was arrested and brought here Saturday evening. A crowd of 1,000 people, largely women, were at the depot, threatening vengeance, but the authorities had Mrs. Chase taken from the train in the outskirts of town.

She is charged with turning the body of a little girl, whom she had adopted, with a heated poker, striking her on the head with the same, beating her till black and blue, and gagging her to prevent an outcry. Mrs. Chase is a lecturer, and was formerly a missionary to the Indians.

THE FAMINE FIEND

Stalks Like a Spectre Gaunt Through Erin's Isle.

Thousands Still Starving in That Distressed Land.

TERRIBLE PICTURE OF DESTITUTION.

Special to the Star.
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—A Dublin letter to a morning paper gives a terrible picture of the destitution in some parts of Ireland. The famine fever prevails to an alarming extent in some places, and harrowing descriptions are given of the distress.

There are four parishes in Connemara lying along the Southern Coast, Galway County, and not one of the three Commissioners deputed by the Government to inquire into the state of things in Connemara has visited these parishes. Similarly, two gentlemen who traveled through the reported distressed districts on behalf of the Duchess of Marlborough are said to have left these parishes out of their inspection. They lie far away from all regular routes, and the work-house, the legal refuge for the destitute, is twenty-six miles away. The process server, however, has visited these wilds.

These four parishes cover an area of about forty miles square and there is not in the whole island a more stricken and woebegone region. The following is a report about the condition of the parishes named: Carnagh, with perhaps a couple dozen exceptions, the whole population of 5,000 are on the highroad to death by starvation. Hunger has overtaken more than one-third of them already.

Those who have anything to eat are living on the seed potatoes. Every day some family is eating its last meal of them. Numbers of families squat in their hideous cabins around the morsel of live turf all day long, in order not to awaken the pangs of hunger by active exercise. Wretched peasant mothers stumble over miles of sharp-pointed rocks with their bare feet, to implore Indian meal for their whining children.

They also carry layers of turf or dripping sea-weed on their backs for ten or fifteen miles like beasts' burden. Starvation is going on far and wide. The weather is cold, and the people are half-naked. There are no beds for the sick, and they lie in their daily clothes, with old tattered rags around them.

Assistance is promised the famishing in the spring, but it is a question how many Connemara peasants will live to see the spring; and those who survive will be emaciated and incapacitated. Nine-tenths of the whole coast population of Connemara, from Galway round to Sligo, are on the brink of starvation.

THE HERALD FAMINE FUND.

The Herald Irish Famine Fund is a great success. It has received contributions at the rate of hundreds of dollars per hour. Among the latest large contributors are Dion Boucicault, P. T. Barnum, Rose Coghlan, Cornelius Vanderbilt and others. Among the contributions is one from the Hebrew Orphans. Boucicault thinks if the four or five hundred theaters and music halls of the United States give a benefit for Irish distress on St. Patrick's Day, $150,000 may be raised for them.

The morning papers say there are between seven and eight thousand newspapers, daily and weekly, in America, and if they were to unite for the relief of Irish distress what might they not achieve in the great work of feeding a starving people?

CATHOLIC CHURCH CONTRIBUTIONS.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 9.—The Roman Catholic Churches and chapels in this diocese took up collections yesterday for the relief of the starving people of Ireland. It is not yet ascertained how much money was contributed, but it is estimated at $15,000.

An Elopement.

The wife of George Hoffman, of Toledo, eloped night before last from that city with a man named Frank Stander. The pair came to this city, followed by Hoffman.

This morning the latter ran across his wife and Stander on Vine street, and, instead of using a pistol as most husbands would have done, he just simply called Officer Chumley and had the couple arrested. They were taken to the Chief of Police's Office, where Hoffman and his wife made up and returned to Toledo together.

Mr. John H. Robb, advance agent for William H. in the city making arrangements for his star to appear at Pike's during the week commencing Monday, 16th.

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE.

Samuel W. Ramp and His Deputies in Possession.

Bernard Says, "I Decline to Surrender."

The County Clerk's office presented a lively appearance this morning. The occasion was the installation of the new Clerk, Mr. Samuel W. Ramp, and his Deputies, and the leave-taking of Mr. Bernard and his men. It was expected that there would be a row which might necessitate the use of a Gatling gun, as Mr. Bernard stated that he was not going to surrender the office.

About 8 o'clock Mr. Ramp went behind the desks without saying anything of what he was going to do. Mr. Bernard did not arrive until shortly before 10 o'clock, and took his seat as usual.

Just before this Constable Eckerle arrived and told Mr. Ramp that he had a warrant for his arrest for violation of the Seitz law. The warrant was sworn out by James Devou.

Mr. Ramp promptly went to Squire Schwab's office in a buggy and gave bail, after which he returned to the Court-house.

The Court of Common Pleas in joint session convened promptly at 10 o'clock in Room No. 2, Judge Fayette Smith presiding.

Mr. E. W. Kittredge suggested to the Court that the names of Mr. Ramp's deputies be read if the list was in Court.

The names of the deputies were read, after which the men were sworn in.

The following are the appointments and assignments of Court-room deputies:

M. K. Drake, assigned to Common Pleas, No. 3.
Phil. Kleiborth, assigned to Superior, No. 1.
Charles H. Fox, assigned to Common Pleas, No. 5.
Cal. W. Thomas, assigned to District Court.

George A. Snyder, assigned to Common Pleas, No. 4.
Joel McGill, assigned to Superior, No. 3.
G. L. Mack, assigned to Superior, No. 2.

S. K. Stephens, assigned to Common Pleas, No. 8.
Chief Deputy and Cashier—John A. Johnson.

Issue Deputy—Emil Hoffman.
Cost Deputy—Wm. M. Trevor.
Execution Deputy—Luther H. Sprecher.

Appearance—Alfred Hill, Jr.
Judgment Indexes—Thos. B. Brooks.
Subpoena Clerk—C. S. Vickers.
Office Assistant—Andy White.

Paper Custodian—David Graf.
Messenger—W. J. Weitkamp.
Janitor—Henry Anthauer.

After the men were sworn in, Mr. Ramp, accompanied by his attorney, Mr. Kittredge, went to the Clerk's gate, where Ex-Alderman John J. Kelly was standing guard. The following colloquy between Mr. Kittredge, Kelly and Ramp ensued:

Ramp—Will you let me in here?
Kelly—Who are you? If you want to see Mr. Bernard, I will.

Kittredge—Then you won't let Mr. Ramp in?
Kelly—No, sir.

After hesitating awhile, Kelly opened the gate and did leave Ramp in.

Mr. Kittredge insisted on having the new deputies allowed to go in, but Kelly refused, whereupon Mr. Kittredge proceeded to the Court measures.

Mr. Ramp then came in and asked for possession of the office, whereupon Mr. Bernard read the following statement:

"As Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas I decline to surrender the office and its effects to you, for the reason stated in my notice to you on Saturday, that I intended to hold the office, believing it to be my duty to do so, until my successor shall have been duly and legally elected and qualified, which I am satisfied you have not been, and can not be, on the contrary, you are not only ineligible to the office of Clerk, but are ineligible to any office."

"My duty, therefore, as I understand it, is to hold the office until a Court competent to pass upon your right to it decides, and until a determination of the question shall have been had, unless overpowered by a resort to violence or brute force, which I trust your good judgment will prevent by a peaceable and legal solution of the question."

Mr. Kelly was summoned to appear before Judge Longworth on a charge of contempt of an order of the Court in refusing to admit the new deputies to their quarters. The summons was made returnable immediately.

While Kelly was being taken up stairs, an order from Judge Longworth came down to the Sheriff to arrest for contempt of Court any man who interfered with Ramp in taking possession of the office.

Mr. Ramp thereupon got up and called the names of his deputies, who were let behind the railings by the Sheriff's deputy, "Buffalo" Meyers.

The men were escorted to their respective desks by the deputy, none of Bernard's clerks making any opposition.

Mr. Ramp then, in the presence of his counsel, Messrs. Kittredge, Storer and Harrison, asked for the safe keys. Bernard declined to give them up, on the ground given in his statements as printed above.

The attorneys for Ramp then sent up for a formal order of the Court, and asked for Bernard's arrest for contempt of Court.

While these proceedings were going on, Mr. Meyers demanded Ex-Janitor J. J. Kelly to deliver up his keys to the new janitor, Mr. Anthauer. Kelly had enough of Court interference business and promptly turned them over.

Mr. Meyers, under instructions, proceeded in his business-like way to make an end to the farce.

He went to Bernard and said, "Mr. Bernard, will you turn over the safe keys to Mr. Ramp?"

The answer was "no," whereupon Buffalo Meyers said:

"Then, Mr. Bernard, will you go to Court with me?"

The answer again was "no, I won't."

Mr. Meyers at once left the Clerk's room to get a definite order from the Court for Bernard's arrest for contempt. In the meantime Bernard had a talk with his attorney, Mr. Alex. Long, and the latter advised him to turn over the safe keys under the proviso that he could at any future time get possession of them. This was agreed to by Mr. Ramp, and soon after word was sent up to the Court that Mr. Ramp was in full possession of the office, and that further ruling in the case was unnecessary. There was also a petition that the contempt cases be dismissed. This was done, and then everything was serene and quiet in the Clerk's office, with Mr. Ramp and his deputies hard at work attending to his ministerial duties.

The crowd, when they found Mr. Ramp installed, gave three cheers and then dispersed.

LAS VEGAS VIGILANTS.

Three Men Taken From Jail and Murdered.

What the Sunday Sun Saw in New Mexico.

Special to the Star.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Feb. 9.—Jim West, John Dorsey and Lord Henry, who were implicated in the shooting of Carson at a dance two weeks ago, were dragged from their cells at 3 o'clock yesterday morning by a mob of seventy-five armed men who knocked down the outer door and forced the jailer to give up the keys.

Ropes were drawn around their necks with a hangman's noose. The men were then carried to the windmill pump, in the center of the business portion of old Las Vegas, and the ropes thrown over the beams of the windmill. West was hauled up, while the mob, becoming too impatient, commenced firing at Dorsey and Henry, who were soon riddled with balls. There was no time for mercy or prayers. West, while being hauled up, cried out, "My God, my mother!" Henry replied, "Shut up, Jim. Die like a man."

No resistance was offered the mob, which quietly dispersed. The bodies were left until after 7 a. m., and the rising sun showed a nearly naked man hanging twenty feet in the air and two men lying beneath him in masses of clotted blood. It was a horrible, sickening sight as the victims lay there with their shackles still upon them. The officers cut down the body and laid it with the others in the Court-house for the Coroner. No friend claimed any of them. The town is now as quiet almost as if nothing had happened, and there is little fear of more trouble.
